 Embracing The Neglected

10 July 2011

It's good to have you in church today. May friendships be enriched, new people welcomed and may God encourage you in your walk with Him.

We are all concerned about the situation in Christchurch and the folk who are feeling so exhausted resulting from sleepless nights and daily housing concerns. 'Take a week away' (TAWA) are planning to follow up each family who came to Auckland. They are sending some food vouchers with a card as an extra gift to each family as a means of encouragement. Let's continue to support CHCH people in our prayers.

Keep in mind people recovering from operations and others sick indoors. A visit, card or a phone call conversation could bring encouragement and the presence of Jesus. Glen and Judy also need our prayers as the transition to a new role and responsibilities is not an easy time.

I am delighted to mention that tonight a number of our young people are getting baptised. You may like to support them in their step of obedience.

Jesus made an interesting observation. 'Blessed are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness for they will be filled' (Matt 5:6). What is ruling your time? Are they things that count in eternity and in the bigger picture of life?

Blessings

Alan Utting

Children's Ministry:

If you have children we have well resourced programmes running. Start in with the family worship before going to age appropriate groups. You are welcome to keep your children with you in the auditorium if you wish.

Family News

SSSS

Sausage Sizzle after the Service on Sunday. ...to raise money for 17 community children @ $50 per child to go to a fantastic school holiday program at Royal Oak Baptist - the more fun, life-giving, positive memories we can create for these children the better.

Alternatively feel free to make a donation towards the cost of a child's fees. For $50 give one of these children (who often don't look forward to school holidays because the end of school means the end of friends, fun and structure) a really rich experience from Monday to Friday of the first week. Thanks for your continued support and care of these precious children :)
