Support Group
 The struggles of life are varied and hard for everyone. But you don't have to walk through them alone. Why not join others and walk together through these times?
 Aloneness can be so crippling but good friendships help take the edge off the intensity of a hard situation.

Welcome to Hillsborough Baptist

We've arrived, at last!
 Two weeks ago we moved into a wonderful house. The boxes have been unpacked. The kids have started their new school. We're finding our way around and we've even got the car in the garage.
 Moving away from a church in which we've invested a big part of our lives has been difficult. It has been an emotional time saying good bye to good friends and a church community that we loved but it has also been an affirming and enriching time.
 The call of God burns deep in our hearts and the assurance that he was leading us to Pastor HBC grew with intensity as we continued to walk forward in obedience to the Spirit's promptings. Throughout this journey we can once again testify to the wonderful provision and faithfulness of God in our lives. This was a promise the Lord gave to us in Matthew 6:33 when we started out in Pastoral ministry. As we've sought his kingdom our lives have been truly blessed and enriched.
 Many of you have been the agents of that blessing recently. We have appreciated the welcome cards, emails and words of encouragement that have been sent to us. The cakes and meals that were dropped around when we arrived, and the faithful prayers for our family has enriched us both physically and spiritually.
 We're looking forward to making HBC our new spiritual home. We want to begin to do this by getting to meet you. We hope to organize some informal times in which we can meet with every person in the church and have a chat over coffee and cake.
 Blessings

Children’s Ministry:

If you have children we have well resourced programmes running. Start in with the family worship before going to age appropriate groups.
